

APPEARING IN THE CLUB ROOM IN FEBRUARY...

WINTER CARNIVAL WEEKEND (February 3rd) Little Miami River Band
Carnival hoopla continues after the Ice Show with Little Miami River Band (LMRB). LMRB plays homage to contemporary and classic rock with some country sprinkled in for good measure. LMRB lets it fly with four-part harmonies, a couple of Stratocasters, acoustic guitars, pedal steel, keyboards, a five string bass, and the biggest drum set you've ever seen. Their eclectic song list ranges from CSNY, Beatles, Santana, and Dire Straits to James Taylor, Dixie Chicks and Grateful Dead. LMRB brings it strong when it's called for, and sweetens it up when there's ladies around.

February 10th Jeff Barrow

As part of the More Cowbell Band, Jeff provides the lead vocals and guitar. As a solo act, Jeff is practically a one man band and entertains with folk, classic rock and traditional acoustic favorites from the 60s and 70s.

February 17th Ray Solinski

Ray is a very special guitarist, singer and songwriter whose repertoire includes roughly 500 songs. You name it, Ray knows it! Ray's positive attitude, his love for storytelling, and his genuine demeanor come across in both his live shows and his CD, Pieces of the American Dream. www.raysolinski.com

February 24th Marc Michaelson

In the 1990s, Marc Michaelson packed bars throughout greater Cincinnati with some of the finest guitar playing and vocals this side of Memphis. Women and males alike swooned! Today, Marc is a family man and a dedicated IHWC member who coaches Youth Hockey teams. However, for one night each year, Marc takes the stage and transports us back to the rowdy and spirited days of our youth. Reserve your spots in the Kids Club downstairs, as you won't want to miss this!
